

Daniel Martel for Southampton Town Trustee; Dan Martel is a lifelong resident of Hampton Bays who attended local schools and excelled in athletics. He volunteered to help establish community service clubs and has been involved with the Kiwanis Club of Southampton events to give back to the community. He took business classes at Suffolk County Community College, planning to take over his family's sporting goods store. Dan has worked at the family business since he was 14 and continues to do so today. He coaches baseball and basketball youth activities and enjoys outdoor activities such as clamming, fishing, and hunting. He is running for public office for the first time and is committed to preserving the maritime way of life and protecting the community's natural resources. His guiding principles are hard work, dedication, and an understanding of traditional ways of life.
