

Ed Warner Jr for Southampton town Trustee; Ed Warner is a Hampton Bays resident and former local bayman concerned with protecting public access, the rights of hunters and local fishermen, and preserving local waters. He has a degree in Marine Technology from Suffolk Community College and has worked on dredging and restoration projects with Stony Brook College and Cornell Cooperative Extension. He has also helped save and restore the fishing pier at his father's park. Ed has sat on the New York State Shellfish Advisory Counsel since 1977 and voted to adopt the IMA (Inter-Municipal Agreement) with the town to utilize the comptroller for transparency of the Trustee's finances. He is married to Kathy, and they have two children, one of whom works for UNICEF, and the other is a commercial fisherman.